

CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENTS

CONFERENCE CREDITS

We appreciate the committee members who helped organize this conference. The organizing committee includes Stephen Young, project manager FamilySearch Digital Publications; Carol Smith, reference consultant for U.S.-Canada Reference at the LDS Family History Library; George Ryskamp, associate professor of history at BYU, John Best, assistant program administrator of BYU's Department of Conferences and Workshops; and Allison Ricks, office specialist in the Department of Conferences and Workshops.

SYLLABUS

Please refer to pages 10-17 of the syllabus for the conference schedule. The course descriptions are listed by hour, with track and course level guidance provided (see pages 18-37). Courses are outlined by track on pages 67-631. Each course has a four-page syllabus, organized alphabetically by track, and then in the chronological order in which courses will be presented.

EVALUATION FORMS

Paper evaluation forms are available at the registration desk. Participants are encouraged to complete an online evaluation, which will be emailed to them Friday evening, just after the conference has ended. The feedback is valued!

CONFERENCE CENTER FACILITIES

The restrooms in this building are at the north and south ends of the back hallway on both floors. A guest telephone is located by the south doors of the Conference Center.

We have not been able to regulate the temperature to suit everyone. Rather than have it too hot, we have opted to keep the building cool and invite participants to bring a sweater if they tend to get cold. Hopefully this will work best for all. Please note that the rooms will be cooler in the morning than later in the day.

Internet access is available. Please see the registration desk for access information. Electrical outlets are placed sparsely throughout the Conference Center.

VENDORS/CHURCH DISTRIBUTION

Vendor booths will be located in the Conference Center main hallway and in rooms 2277, 2279 and 2283 CONF. A BYU Bookstore cashier will be available daily from 8:00 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. in 2262 CONF.

FOOD

If you have purchased a Meal Plan, a card will be located on the back of your name tag. Hot meals, fruit and salad bars will be located in the Morris Center, a short walk south of the Conference Center. Conference meal cards can be purchased for $23 at the conference registration desk. Free shuttle service to the Morris Center is available daily from noon–1:30 p.m. for those interested. The pick-up and drop-off location will be at the south entrance of the Conference Center. The BYU Creamery Outlet carries the traditional BYU mint brownies, which can be purchased individually or in bulk. For local food listings, please view our recommended listings from a conference representative at the registration desk, located at room 2297B CONF.

PARKING

Conference participants may park in the lot west of the Conference Center. The row of parking closest to the Conference Center is 60-minute parking only, and is not available to conference participants. Attendees may also park in the visitor lots located in the front section of the Wilkinson Center parking lot and the back section of the Museum of Art parking lot.
