

Family history consultants, family history center directors, and staff can use these resources to learn their responsibilities, teach family history classes, and help members do family history work.

Online registration page 	Go to: consultant.familysearch.org	Provides consultants access to family history training courses and resources in the Training and Resources tab in the Help Center in the new FamilySearch. Once they have registered, consultants receive e-mail with updates from the Family History Department.
Serving in the Church, Family History section of lds.org 	Go to: lds.org <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Click Serving in the Church.</li> <li>2. Click Family History.</li> <li>3. Click Family History Consultants.</li> </ol>	Provides an overview of family history programs, priesthood leadership of family history, and links to resources such as online training lessons, administrative guides, and training videos. The training videos feature instruction and testimony by presiding Church leaders and discussion with local priesthood and family history leaders.
Family History Consultants Guide (online resource only) 	Available for viewing and download on lds.org <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Click Serving in the Church.</li> <li>2. Click Family History.</li> <li>3. Click Family History Consultants.</li> </ol>	Teaches consultants their responsibilities and how they can help members do family history work.
Instructor's Guide to Temple and Family History Work (Distribution Services item 35804) 		Provides lessons that consultants use to teach family history classes during Sunday School or at other times convenient for members. Also serves as a self-study guide for members. The guide comes with a DVD that contains instruction and testimony from Church leaders and members who participate in family history.