

J. Reuben Clark Law Society

Continuing Legal Education Classes

The following classes are sponsored by the Provo chapter of the J. Reuben Clark Law Society and are for registered Campus Education Week students. While primarily designed for attorneys, any registered participant may attend. In addition to the Campus Education Week tuition, attorneys seeking Continuing Legal Education credit for the state of Utah are required to pay a $35 fee for the week to be paid at the door of 214 Crabtree Building (this covers the state CLE costs). Attorneys seeking credit for other states are required to pay a $20 fee for the week. Participants must check with their respective state bars for verification that the following classes will be accepted as CLE credit (this verification has already taken place for Utah).

Classes will be held in 214 Crabtree Building (CTB).

Day	8:30–10:45 a.m.	12:30–2:45 p.m.	3:10–5:25 p.m.
Tues., August 18	A View from the Bench— How and Why a Lawyer Must Understand the Culture of Courts—From the Scopes Trial to Modern Courts and Judges  H. Vern Payne	An Economic Perspective on Damages (with Examples from Recent Litigation)  J R Kearl	No Class
	Tuesday Evening Fireside—7:10 p.m. Assembly Hall, Hinckley Center (HC)  John W. (Jack) Welch, professor of law and editor in chief of BYU Studies at Brigham Young University, will present a fireside for attorneys. While sponsored by the J. Reuben Clark Law Society, Education Week participants and the general public are invited and encouraged to attend.
Wed., August 19	Are Plaintiffs Ever Really Injured? A Defense Attorney’s Approach to Personal Injury Cases  Joseph J. Joyce	Stare Decisis in the U.S. Supreme Court  Thomas R. Lee	“Trademarks 101”: Trademark Law for Nonintellectual Property Lawyers  Barnard N. Madsen
Thur., August 20	Trash Talk: Understanding Recent Developments in Dormant Commerce Clause Jurisprudence  Michael S. Lee	Family Law Update  D. Miles Holman	Legal Rights and Duties Affecting Language Minorities in Educational Settings in the United States  Scott E. Ferrin
Friday, August 21	Ethics for Lawyers  Kevin G. Glade	Fundamentals of Immigration Law  Cynthia J. Lange	No Class

About the Presenters:

- |                    |                                                                                                                         |
|--------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Ferrin, Scott E.   | Associate professor of educational leadership and foundations, BYU; EdD in administration, planning, and social policy. |
| Glade, Kevin G.    | Attorney, Ray Quinney & Nebeker; JD.                                                                                    |
| Holman, D. Miles   | Attorney, Holman & Walker; JD.                                                                                          |
| Joyce, Joseph J.   | Attorney, J. Joyce & Associates; JD.                                                                                    |
| Kearl, J R         | Professor of economics and director of Jerusalem Center, BYU; PhD in economics.                                         |
| Lange, Cynthia J.  | Managing partner, Fragomen, Del Rey, Bernsen & Loewy, LLP; JD.                                                          |
| Lee, Michael S.    | General counselor to the governor, state of Utah; JD.                                                                   |
| Lee, Thomas R.     | Associate dean, J. Reuben Clark Law School; JD.                                                                         |
| Madsen, Barnard N. | Partner and attorney, Fillmore Spencer LLC; JD.                                                                         |
| Payne, H. Vern     | Attorney, Smith & Payne, P.C.; former chief justice of the New Mexico Supreme Court; LLM in jurisprudence.              |
| Welch, John W.     | Professor of law and editor in chief of BYU Studies , BYU; founder of FARMS; JD.                                 |