

Learning to Be Led By the Spirit

This class will discuss ways to be led by the Holy Ghost and receive personal revelation.

- I. The gift of the Holy Ghost is the promise of constant companionship throughout our life.
 - a. John 10:26
 - b. 2 Nephi 32:3, 5
- II. The Spirit generally speaks in a still small voice.
 - a. 1 Kings 19:11-12, Helaman 5:30, Doctrine & Covenants 8:2-3
- III. The spirit is sensitive to distractions and unworthiness.
 - a. 1 Nephi 17:45
- IV. We must tune ourselves into the Spirit.
 - a. Reverence is the key to revelation.
 - i. Matthew 4:1-11 (JST)
 - ii. "Inspiration comes more easily in peaceful settings." Elder Boyd K. Packer, CR, Oct. 1991, 27
 - b. Pondering helps us tune into the spirit.
 - i. Official Declaration 2
 - c. We must write down the promptings we receive.
 - i. "I will learn by what I hear, see, and feel... I will write down what I learn"
Elder Richard G. Scott, CES Symposium, 11 Aug. 1998
- V. Personal experience about receiving personal revelation in my life.
- VI. Bear Testimony that our Father in Heaven will constantly guide us if tune our spirit to His spirit.